

Although I am in favor of the ARRL filed proposal RM-10413 I feel that it does not go far enough. Novice and Technician+ licensees are now orphaned license classes efforts should be made to get these classes into more mainstream operations in the Amateur Radio allocated spectrum. Grandfather these to General and the Advanced to Extra and we are left with a very slimmed down 3 license system.